

The Telegraph

Date: 05.04.2012

Yearly bash

■ A perfect blend of pitch, rhythm, dynamics and talent left the audience awestruck at B-Beats-12, the yearly bash of the Biju Patnaik Institute of Information Technology and Management Studies, Bhubaneswar. The event, held on March 31, included dance and music programmes, skits and a ramp show by the students. Sudhi Ranjan Panda, an ex-student of the institute, presently employed in a private bank, was honoured with the "Alumni of the Year" award. Chief guest Sibasish Maity of a private firm, talked about the future on management education in India.